

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH'S GREEK
SYSTEM WELCOMES STUDENTS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE.

Story by MEREDITH SEARIGHT

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH SORORITY AND FRATERNITY LIFE

“Essentially this is the University of Utah and we are a very white institution not by choice, but by proximity and where we are.”

-Jess Turuc, Director of
Sorority and Fraternity
Life

DELTA GAMMA AT THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

“Delta Gamma fosters an environment of inclusivity and openness. Our sisterhood is made up of woman from all walks of life. Everyone has a different background and a different story.”

-Quinn Martz, President of Delta Gamma

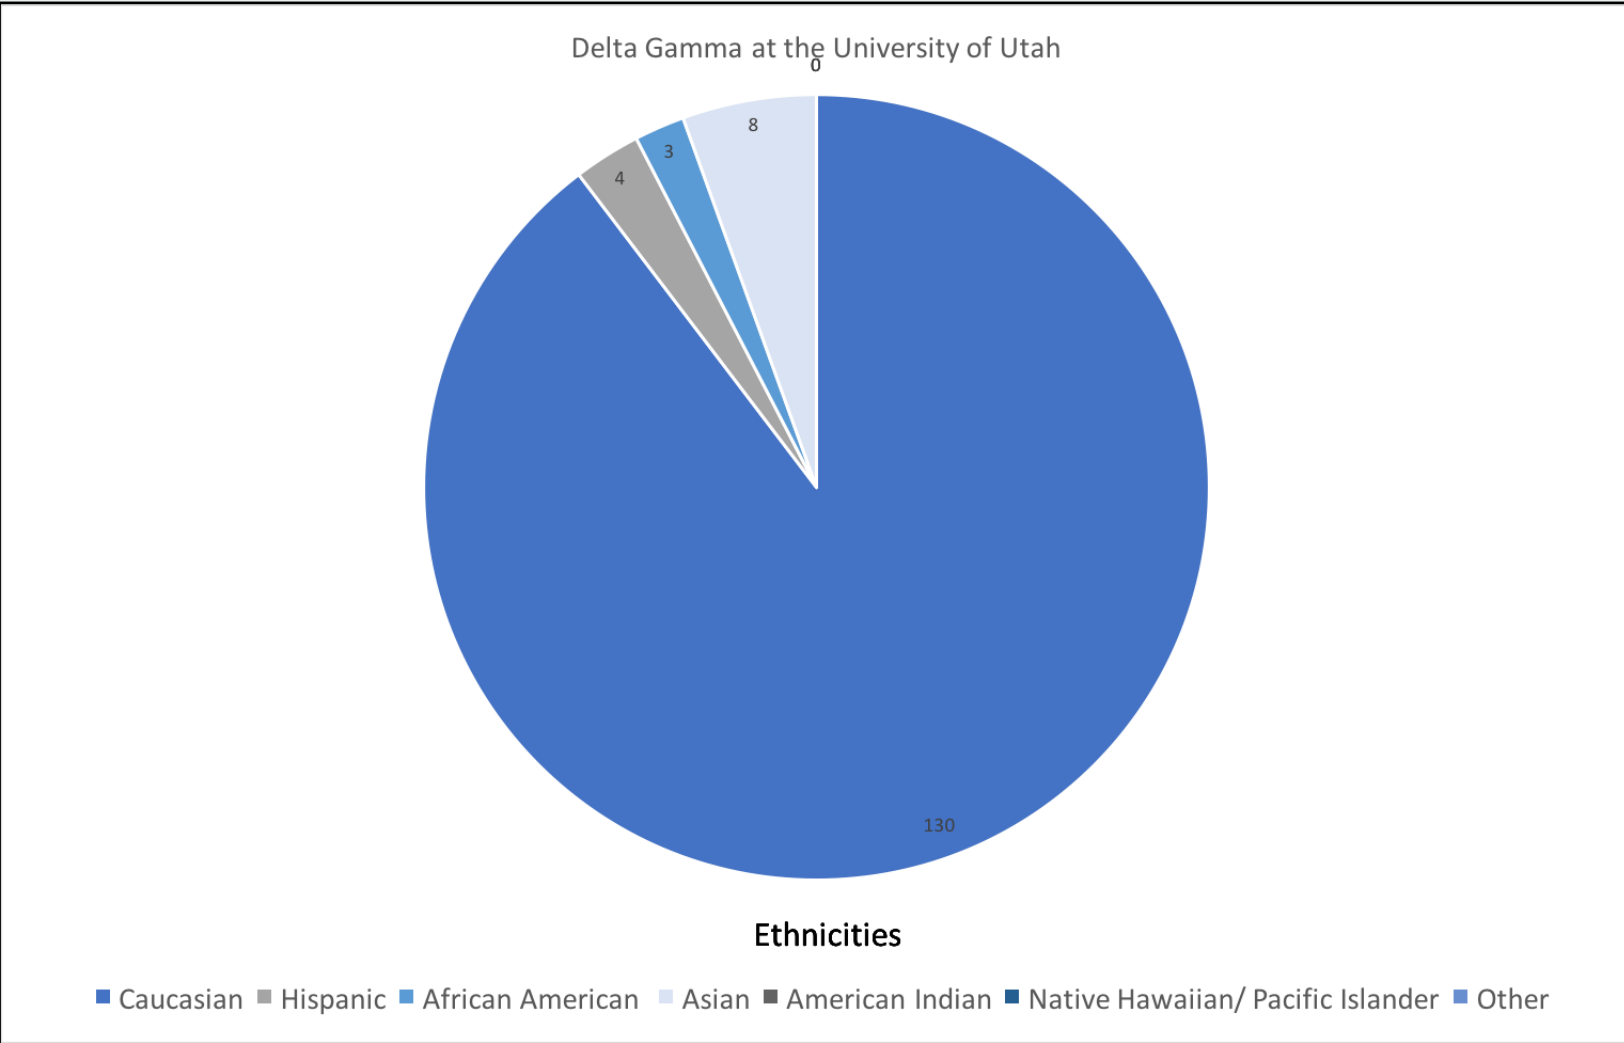

University of Utah Delta Gamma house taken on Monday, November 13, 2017, in Salt Lake City, UT (Photo by Meredith Searight)

University of Utah Delta Gamma Group Picture taken on Saturday, September 23, 2017, in Garden City, UT (Photo by Catherine Davey)

DELTA GAMMA ETHNICITY CHART

CHI OMEGA AT THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

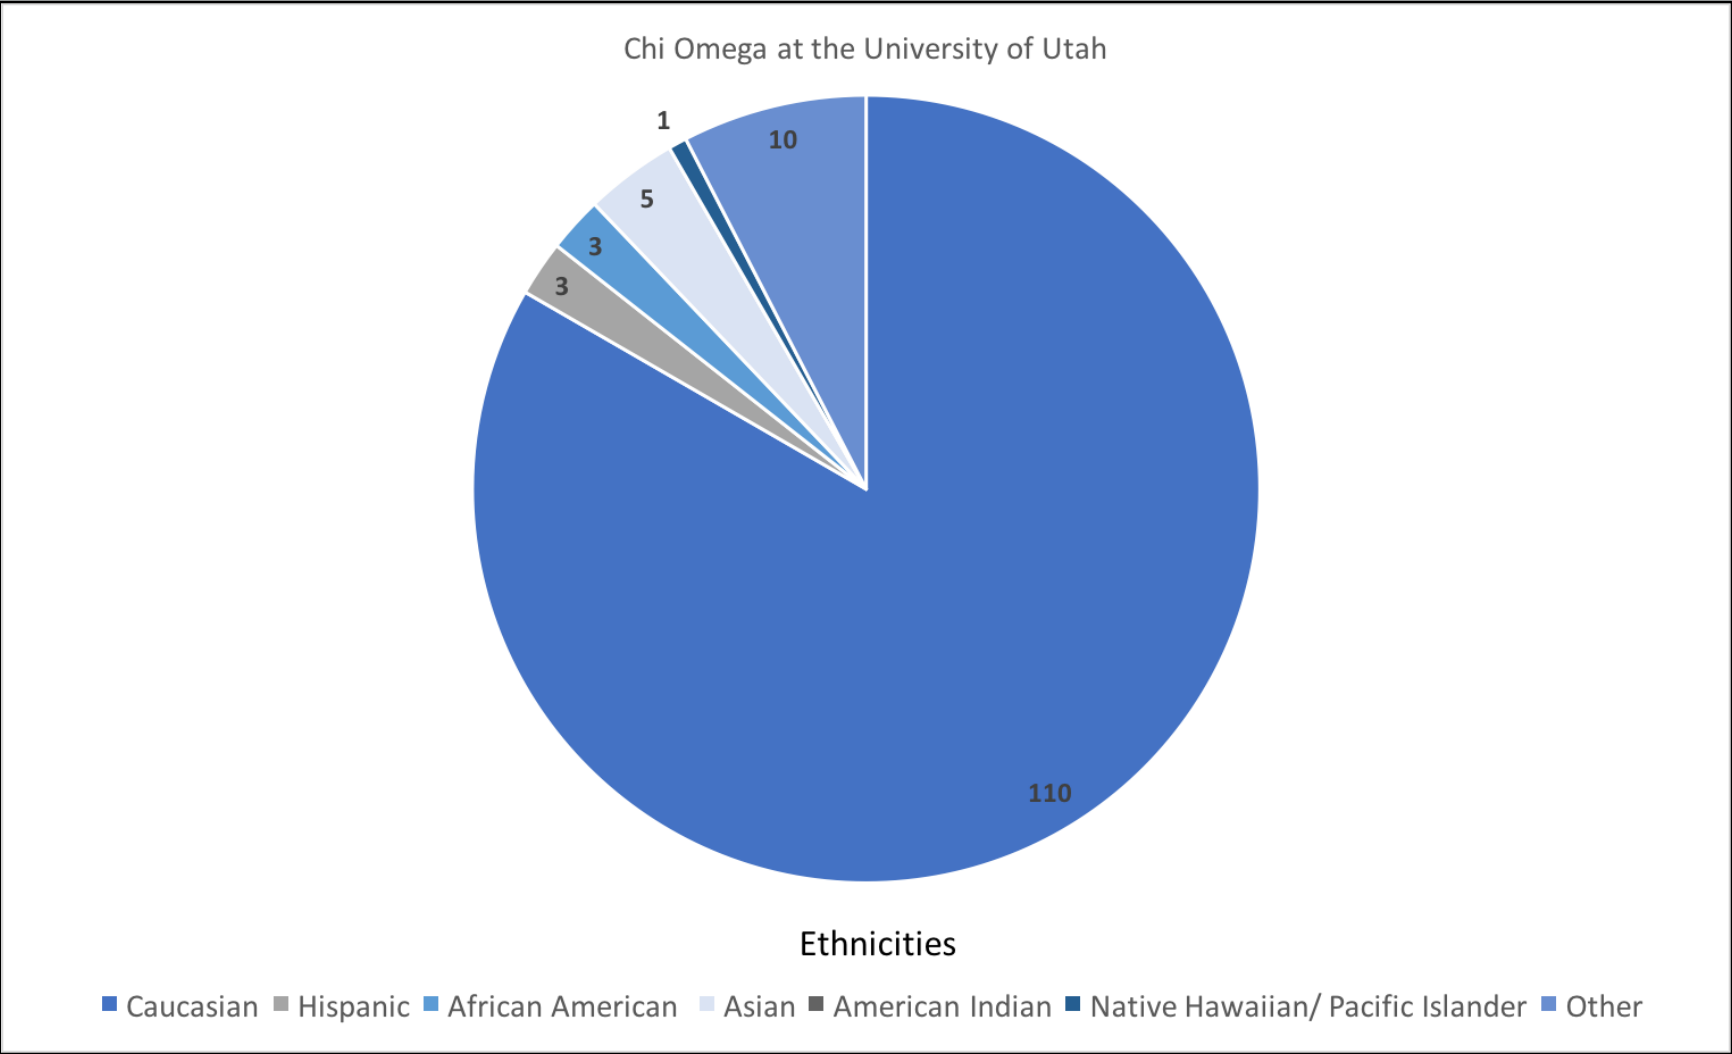

“Diversity allows us to have multiple perspectives and use them to enrich our peers around us. It makes us more accepting and communicative.”

-Kira Watcher, President of Chi Omega

University of Utah Chi Omega house taken on Tuesday, November 14, 2017, in Salt Lake City, UT (Photo by Meredith Searight)

CHI OMEGA ETHNICITY CHART

SIGMA PHI EPSILON AT THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

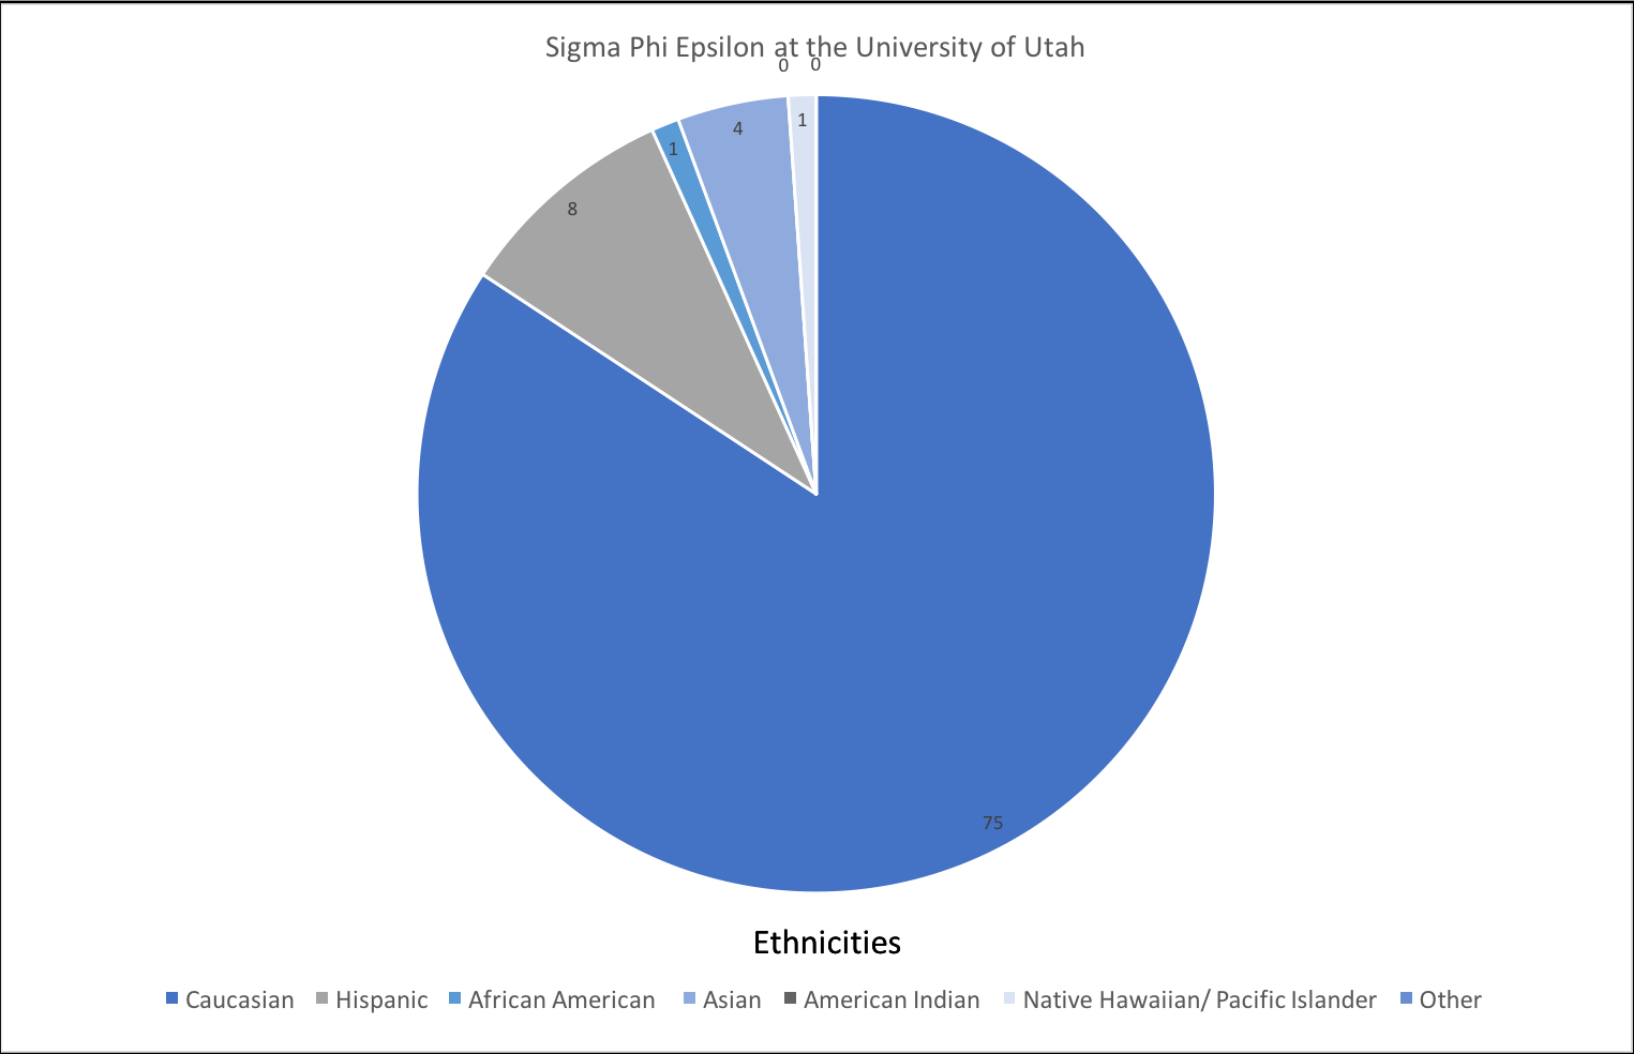

“We have African American, Asian, and Hispanic members. This has allowed us to have a more diverse experience as brothers especially given that these members are often not naturally born US citizens. All brothers bring something new and exciting to the table as we all come from different backgrounds, however it is incredibly rewarding to have members who are from different ethnic backgrounds or who were born abroad as we can come alongside them and learn to be racially and ethnically tolerant.”

-Colter Merritt, President of Sigma Phi Epsilon

University of Utah Sigma Phi Epsilon house taken on Tuesday, November 14, 2017, in Salt Lake City, UT (Photo by Meredith Searight)

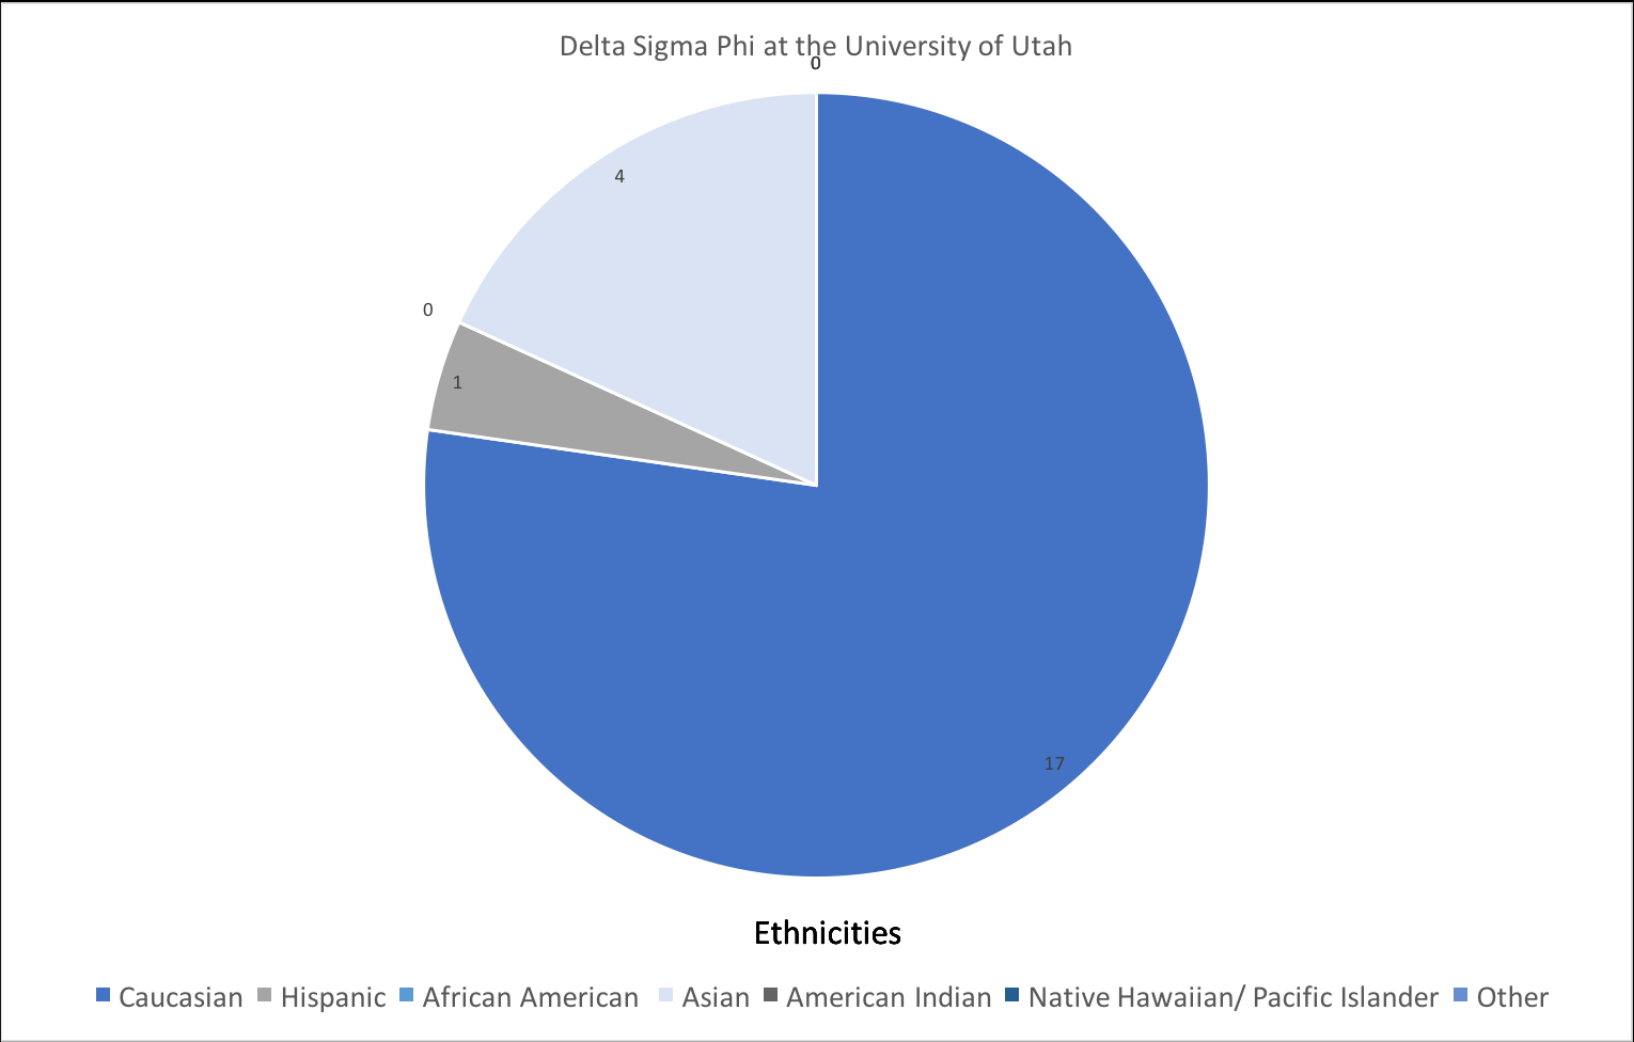

SIGMA PHI EPSILON ETHNICITY CHART

COLBY JUDD, PRESIDENT OF DELTA SIGMA PHI

“For us, we have had members step out because they didn’t feel comfortable joining a chapter that was weaker on cultural diversity. Generally we work our best to try and integrate members that may be feeling disenchanting by lack of chapter diversity and trying our best to ensure that we don’t limit our associations to just those that share our background.”

DELTA SIGMA PHI ETHNICITY CHART

TOTAL MAKEUP OF ALL HOUSES SURVEYED

